Brexit Preparation and Toolkit ADVANCE NOTICE

What would be the impact of WTO tariffs being imposed on EU imported goods, which are currently tariff free?

What would be the implications on cash flow, if there are not only tariffs to pay but also subsequent paperwork?

How can you achieve frictionless trade?

Though the exact nature of the changes that Brexit will bring will not become apparent for some time, we can help you understand and prepare for what could be the impact of the "worst case scenario".

e-zCert Documentation Workshop Tuesday, 17th October 2017

Designed with efficiency and ease of use in mind, an increasing number of companies are finding it quicker and cheaper to process their export documentation online via the e-zCert system.

We are holding a half day training session for anybody who wants to start doing their documentation online, or who would like to train new staff or who would simply like to brush up their skills and knowledge.

Union Customs Code (UCC) and Authorised Economic Operator (AEO) Tuesday, 7th November 2017

The UCC was introduced across the EU on 1st May 2016 and it affects the way many companies involved in international trade do business. The changes that were introduced in 2016 mean that achieving AEO status is more relevant than ever to your business and will continue to be relevant when we exit the EU.

Understanding Export

Wednesday, 20th Sept 2017

This course will explain what an export is and give newcomers to international trade a clear insight into basic procedures, good practice and the essential documents they are likely to encounter.

Methods of Payment inc Letters of Credit

Tuesday, 24th Oct 2017

This course covers the 5 main types of payment for exports, from advance payment to open account, including Sight Documentary Collection and Documentary Letters of Credit. It includes the use of Bills of Exchange with and without documents.

Incoterms

Tuesday, 21st Nov 2017

Incoterms rules define the responsibilities of the buyer and seller with respect to the packing, transportation and insurance of goods as they are transferred from the seller to the buyer - if the Incoterms rules are not understood, this can have a direct impact on landed costs for products.

Preference Rules of Origin

Tuesday, 21st Nov 2017

This half day course takes an in-depth look at the rules of origin, providing clarity between preference origin and non-preference origin and how to establish where goods originate "officially".
