

Webinar: Opportunities in the Chilean satellite supply chain

This webinar will cover business opportunities in the satellite supply chain in Chile, specifically within the industries of mining, energy, agriculture, aquaculture, smart cities amongst others. Chile is developing their space capabilities and welcome participation from UK companies. Come hear where the business opportunities are.

Speakers

In addition, further information will be given on the proposed business development visit to Chile in March 2017.

The Chilean Government has also been invited to provide a speaker to describe more detailed information on competitive gaps in Chile industrial sectors, and national strategies to address those gaps.
